Carmel Art Students Showcase Work At Prestigious Lisa Art Show

Mundelein, IL— 4/8/2010—15 Carmel Catholic High School art students were selected to display their work at the Lisa Show Student Art Display at the Great Frame-Up in Vernon Hills from April 16-24. This is a juried art show. The public is cordially invited to the Lisa Show Student Art Display at the Great Frame-Up in Vernon Hills from April 16-24.

Carmel Catholic High School is very proud of its talented art students and commends them for their work along with their instructor, Ms. Sheela Gladwell. Please stop by to see their incredible work along with student artwork on display from other area high schools. Prepare to be amazed at the talent! The Great Frame-Up is located on the North side of Route 60 west of Dominick's at 278 Hawthorn Village Commons.
