

Spring Musical Underway - Carmel Catholic Fine Arts Department to Present:

BRIGADOON

Carmel Catholic High School's Fine Arts Department will present the musical Brigadoon, for its Spring musical production. This magical love story will take the stage on April 23-24 at 7 p.m. and on April 25 at 2 p.m. Brigadoon is a tribute to integrity, the power of true love, and living a simple life.

In the play, the mythical town of Brigadoon emerges from the mists of time for one day every 100 years, but when true love is involved, anything is possible. During the production, audience members become travelers peeking into 18th Century Scottish Highland life, virtues, and values. New Yorkers Tommy Albright and Jeff

Douglas stumble across the town of Brigadoon while on a hunting vacation in the Scottish Highlands. At first, the residents of the town are puzzled by the men's presence, but welcome the travelers. Sparks fly between Tommy and Fiona, who is busy getting ready for her younger sister's wedding. Because of the magical spell placed on the town, no one may ever leave Brigadoon and Tommy must decide if his love for Fiona is strong enough for him to give up life as he knows it.

Brigadoon was originally presented on Broadway in 1947. Many songs, including Come to Me, Bend to Me, Waitin' For My Dearie, and Almost Like Being in Love have become standards. The singing, dancing and musical talents of more than 100 Carmel students will be showcased while they bring this enchanted and beautiful town of the mists of time, to life. Dino Filippini and Chris Heinlen star as Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas. Fiona is portrayed by Ashleen Davy and Paula Castanos. Will Riedl plays the bagpipes.
